

Adoption is an empowering option for women.

My name is Jessica.

When I became pregnant, I knew I was not ready to be a mother.

Adoption was the best choice for my son—and for me.

It was hard, and I miss him, but I wouldn't change a thing.

I found strength I never knew I had.

Now, my son has the life I wanted for him, but wasn't ready to give him. I have pursued my career and life plans.

There is life after adoption.™

Refuse to Choose® · Women Deserve Better®

feministsforlife.org